

"The Best Is Yet To Come"
Luke 24:1-11 & John 20:3-10

Questions to Ponder

Got hope anyone?

From hopeless to hopeful

Hope comes alive

In what ways is being hopeless often a condition to becoming hopeful?

- How was this true of the disciples?
- How has this been true for you?

What catches your imagination from the resurrection story today?

- Pay attention to why you are drawn to this.
- What might God have for you through this?

N.T. Wright said, "We have struggled since the fall with wanting to attain the Christian vision of a hopeful future without the Christian God."

- Where have you noticed this taking place in our world?
- In what ways has this proven true in your life?

In what ways has the resurrection of Jesus affected and shaped your life?

Mary Magdalene was so overcome with hope and joy that she didn't care what other people thought or said.

- In what ways has this been true of you?
- If not, what would it take for this to be true for you?

In what specific way(s) do you need to invite Jesus to join you in your life?
